Bio

Matthew Moriarty is a Partner in the Cleveland office of Tucker Ellis LLP. He has had a wide variety of experience in the courtroom, including products liability, medical and legal malpractice, personal injury, insurance coverage, business and professional disciplinary cases. Matt's practice focuses on representing companies in products liability and pharmaceutical defense and hospitals in professional liability cases. He has tried over 50 jury cases to verdict in state and federal courts, and appeared before a number of state and federal appellate courts.

Mr. Moriarty is board certified as a civil trial lawyer by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He has published several articles in legal and medical journals, has taught at legal and medical seminars, and periodically taught trial advocacy at the CWRU law school. He was recently bestowed the title of "Super Lawyer" by Cincinnati Magazine. He volunteers his time as a prosecutor for the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association in lawyer disciplinary cases, and as a member of the board of directors of an adoption agency.
