TEW'S MATT COX APPOINTED TO LOTTERY COMMISSION

TEW's own Matt Cox was recently appointed by Governor Ted Strickland to serve on the Ohio Lottery Commission. Matt was appointed effective September 1, 2008 and will serve an initial term through August 2011. Matt along with his fellow Commissioners is responsible for all aspects of the Ohio Lottery's programs to achieve its mission of "Conducting lottery games in the State of Ohio for the benefit of public education."

We appreciate Governor Strickland's recognition of Matt's commitment to quality public service. It is a testament to Matt and exemplifies TEW's goal of serving and improving our broader community. matthew.cox@tuckerellis.com
