SUCCESSFUL INVOLVEMENT WITH STATE ISSUE 1

Tucker Ellis & West's Matt Cox just completed a key role as statewide campaign manager of State Issue 1, the successful primary ballot initiative that renews the highly regarded Ohio Third Frontier program through at least 2016. Issue 1 passed yesterday with almost 62% of the statewide vote, signaling the campaign's success at communicating the benefits of the Third Frontier program to Ohio voters.

"We're proud to have one of our own demonstrate leadership in this important economic development issue for the State of Ohio. Matt's efforts on behalf of Third Frontier reflect our commitment to business growth and innovation" said Joe Morford, Managing Partner of Tucker Ellis & West.

The Ohio Third Frontier program is widely viewed as Ohio's most successful economic development and jobs program. Investments from the program help build new companies, support business expansion, and create jobs. Since its inception in 2002, the program has created or expanded more than 600 companies and created over 55,000 jobs in Ohio.
