Natalie Fine focuses her practice on business formation, governance, financing, and mergers and acquisitions.

Natalie counsels business clients through every stage of the business lifecycle, beginning before company formation, continuing as the business grows, through sale. Working with boards of directors and corresponding with equity holders, Natalie helps companies stay organized and on track to meet their goals. She also works with businesses to protect their trademarks by handling and maintaining filings with the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

Natalie lives in the heart of Chicago and enjoys taking advantage of all the city has to offer. In her free time she likes to golf, attend workout classes, and spend time with friends.
