Bridget McCusker applies her skills in writing and analysis to assist clients and litigation teams across a range of practice areas.

Bridget attentively supports clients throughout the litigation process. Working across a variety of industries and practice areas, she assists with case strategy, including the design and coordination of discovery tactics, motion practice, and alternative dispute resolution.

Leveraging her experience as a former business analyst, Bridget provides meticulous client service with a logical approach. During law school, she served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Madeline Cox Arleo in the United States District Court, District of New Jersey, and participated in a research project focused on international criminal law as the recipient of the Hugo Grotius International Law Fellowship.

In her free time, Bridget enjoys exploring the Cleveland Metroparks, reading, and spending time with friends and family.
