Emily Evans applies her legal research and writing skills to assist clients in protecting their intellectual property.

Emily focuses her practice on trademark and copyright prosecution and litigation. She has experience drafting cease-and-desist and demand letters, as well as conducting legal research. Additionally, Emily has prepared discovery requests, pleadings, and deposition outlines, and assisted partners with trial preparation.

Emily enjoys traveling, CrossFit, dancing, flying trapeze, and going to concerts with her talent agent fiancé, Spencer.
