Ernie Auciello is a trial lawyer who focuses on pharmaceutical litigation, medical malpractice, and long term care litigation.

Ernie has over 30 years of experience in defending medical professionals, hospitals, and other medical institutions and product manufacturers. Throughout the past 20 years, he has tried over 50 civil jury trials as first-chair counsel. He has successfully managed a variety of litigation against product managers, employers, and healthcare providers, and has represented his clients before courts of all levels, administrative agencies, and in private arbitration.

After law school, Ernie served a two-year clerkship for U.S. District Judge Churchill in the Northern Division of the Eastern District in Bay City, Michigan and assisted Judge Churchill during his designation to the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Ernie has lectured before both national and local organizations on risk management and litigation and the defense of medical malpractice.

Born in Welch, West Virginia, Ernie lives in Perry Township, Ohio with his wife Sue. He loves golf and spending time with his son Stephen, a physician in Columbus, and daughter Megan, a public school teacher.
