Genevieve Vince uses her keen attention to detail and case management skills to support the Tucker Ellis Business Litigation Group.

With experience spanning multiple areas of law, Genevieve is adept at applying her unique perspectives in order to create new and innovative solutions to complex legal issues. She prioritizes providing high-quality work in the most efficient manner possible.

In law school, Genevieve served as an extern with the Criminal Division of the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Ohio. She previously served as an intern to the Honorable Alison McCarty of the Summit County Court of Common Pleas. In these roles, Genevieve honed her analytical skills, gaining valuable experience synthesizing the facts and the law in a persuasive and compelling manner.

As a native of Northeastern Ohio, Genevieve is an enthusiast of nature and wildlife. In her free time, she enjoys being outside gardening, relaxing, or simply exploring the outdoors. Genevieve is also an avid theater fan and enjoys seeing shows at Playhouse Square and participating in local community theater productions.
