Hailee Kepchar represents clients in complex commercial litigation and business disputes.

Hailee supports clients throughout the litigation process, from initial case assessment through trial preparation and settlement negotiations. With an undergraduate degree in journalism, she uses her exceptional skills in communications and legal writing to draft persuasive dispositive motions, legal memoranda, client and opposing-counsel correspondence, and litigation-related filings. She also has experience in document review, case strategy development, and conducting legal research in complex statutory, regulatory, and constitutional issues.

A Cleveland native, Hailee lives in the Gordon Square neighborhood with her partner. In her free time, she enjoys practicing yoga, attending live music events, and discovering new local coffee shops throughout the city.
