Izaak Horstemeier-Zrnich uses his strong writing, research, and advocacy skills to support the Tucker Ellis Trial Department.

Izaak assists in a variety of cases, including personal injury, product liability, and business litigation. He has experience with various aspects of pre-trial litigation, including assessing cases, drafting written discovery, and working with the client to conduct fact investigations. Izaak also is part of a Tucker Ellis team that defends a Fortune 300 manufacturer and supplier in state and federal courts across the country.

During law school, Izaak worked as a law clerk for a global leader in the paint and coatings manufacturing industry, where he assisted attorneys in various areas of law, including commercial contracts, corporate governance, information technology, real estate, and employment.

Izaak grew up in the Cleveland area and currently resides in Cleveland's Tremont neighborhood. In his free time, he enjoys watching and playing sports, trivia with friends, and exploring all of the food the area has to offer.
