Jason Ben provides strong advocacy and innovative solutions to clients involved in complex U.S. and international financial restructurings and insolvencies.

With over two decades of experience, Jason offers strategic and practical advice to companies, boards of directors, and sponsors facing financial challenges to their organizations. His experience includes representing both corporate debtors and secured lenders in chapter 11 and out-of-court restructurings. He regularly counsels consulting firms, hedge funds, mortgage finance companies, construction companies, and other corporate concerns in credit risk mitigation, restructurings, and workouts, and manages the documentation and negotiation of various contract and lending matters.

Jason also represents purchasers of distressed assets under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, as well as landlords, suppliers, and other unsecured creditors in a variety of transactional and litigation-related aspects of the debtor-creditor relationship.
