Chaz Weber leads the Tucker Ellis Finance practice group.

A trusted advisor to regional and national banks, private capital providers, and real estate funds and sponsors, Chaz guides them through sophisticated real estate financing and development transactions. With a deep understanding of the industry, he brings a practical, solutions-oriented approach to every matter, helping clients navigate the complexities of today's real estate market.

Chaz has extensive experience representing agents, lenders, and borrowers in structuring and documenting a wide range of credit facilities for clients including developers, owners, real estate management and investment firms, REITs, and private equity real estate funds. He frequently acts as lead agent counsel on complex syndicated credit facilities, advising on diverse collateral structures such as subscription-secured credit facilities, traditional mortgage-secured single-asset financings, and credit facilities for REITs and private equity real estate funds secured by pools of mortgaged or unencumbered real property.

Known for his collaborative style and commitment to client service, Chaz is recognized for his ability to resolve issues efficiently and drive transactions to successful completion. Clients value his creativity, responsiveness, and strong advocacy in negotiations. Chambers USA ranks Chaz in Real Estate (Ohio), with clients describing him as "very creative, responsive and always helpful," and "a strong advocate in negotiations with lenders."

Outside of his legal practice, Chaz enjoys CrossFit, golfing, and attending his kids' sporting events. He and his wife, Jessica, live in Olmsted Falls with their three children.
