Chaz Weber represents regional and national banks and other capital providers in complex real estate financing transactions.

Chaz has substantial experience representing lenders in documenting credit facilities in favor of developers, owners, real estate management and investment firms, REITs, and private equity real estate funds. He regularly serves as lead agent counsel on complex syndicated credit facilities with a variety of collateral structures, including subscription-secured credit facilities, traditional mortgage-secured single-asset financings, and REIT or private equity real estate fund credit facilities secured by an underlying pool of mortgaged or unencumbered real property. Chaz prides himself on being a trusted advisor to clients and a cooperative voice to resolve issues and move deals across the finish line.

Outside of the office, Chaz enjoys hiking, golfing, cooking, and traveling with his family. He, his wife, Jessica, and their three children live in Olmsted Falls where Chaz is a member of the Olmsted Falls Planning and Zoning Commission.
