Thomas Fawkes practices in the areas of bankruptcy, creditors' rights, and financial restructuring.

Tom represents official committees, unsecured and secured creditors, debtors, financial institutions, post-confirmation trustees, and asset purchasers in chapter 11 and chapter 7 bankruptcy cases, out-of-court restructurings, and liquidation proceedings throughout the United States. He has represented clients in matters including plan confirmations, preference, fraudulent transfer and other bankruptcy litigation, cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing, section 363 sale transactions, real estate and equipment leasing disputes, and claims reconciliation. Tom also assists clients in structuring their commercial transactions to mitigate the risk of future bankruptcy and insolvency issues.

Tom has particular experience representing official committees of unsecured creditors, with over fifty such representations across the United States and across a wide variety of industries, including restaurants, foodservice and grocery stores, agriculture, manufacturing, distribution, mining, and real estate development.

Tom has been recognized on a national scale for his professional accomplishments, particularly his representation of creditors' committees in chapter 11 cases, as well as creditors and other parties in notable bankruptcies. He has been recognized by Chambers USA as one of the leading bankruptcy and restructuring attorneys in Illinois, with sources describing him as "really tenacious, thorough, and knowledgeable." One of only 12 attorneys selected nationwide, Tom was named an "Outstanding Young Restructuring Lawyer" by the editors of Turnaround and Workouts in 2013.

In addition, Tom frequently presents and publishes on bankruptcy and creditors' rights legal issues. Among other things, Tom is an active member of the National Association of Credit Management (NACM), and has presented over 100 times at NACM national and regional conferences and before NACM industry credit groups. He also has served as a presenter and panelist for the American Bankruptcy Institute (ABI) and Commercial Law League of America, among other organizations. Furthermore, Tom is a long-time contributor to the Commercial Bankruptcy Litigation treatise, and has published articles in ABI Journal, NACM Business Credit, Financier Worldwide, and other publications.

Tom is a native Chicagoan and, therefore, a long-suffering fan of the Chicago Bears, despite the fact they have not won a Super Bowl since he was in grade school. Outside of work, Tom enjoys traveling the world with his family, cooking, playing golf poorly, and homebrewing.
