Tyler Palmer enjoys helping clients accomplish their objectives in business litigation.

Clients appreciate Tyler's hard work and creativity in resolving partnership disputes, contract breaches, and other business litigation disputes. Tyler analyzes legal issues, drafts initial and responsive pleadings, conducts discovery and depositions, engages in motion practice, participates in hearings, and, when necessary, represents clients at mediations, arbitrations, and, especially, trials – where he has presented evidence and examined witnesses in more than 100 cases.

Tyler previously worked for Arizona's state legislative budget office, as the Chief of Staff for the Arizona Registrar of Contractors, as a Deputy County Attorney, and as an Assistant Attorney General. He has written state legislation, state regulations, county ordinances, and numerous contracts.
